Reva Siegel notes that the 19A was about the democratization of the family--the notion that women, as well as men, could participate in the political community in order to change the conditions of family life.

Siegel argues that we cannot rely only on courts to defend women's rights. The 19A, like the Reconstruction Amendments, has an enforcement clause. Could we imagine legislating under this clause to enforce a broad vision of women's equality under the 19A?

It was on official Pentagon letterhead and everything. And it wasn't that long ago.

WASHINGTON, DC 20301-1010

The Honorable Charles E. Schumer
Minority Leader
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

DEC 16 2019

Dear Senator Schumer:

Thank you for your letter to Secretary Esper dated November 18, 2019, regarding recent testimony by Lieutenant Colonel (LTC) Alexander Vindman and Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense Laura Cooper before the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. I am replying on his behalf. Let me assure you, the Department will not tolerate any act of retaliation or reprisal against them. Further, we are committed to taking whatever steps are necessary, consistent with Section 714 of Title 10, U.S. Code, to ensure the security of LTC Vindman and Ms. Cooper. We continue to monitor their security situation, and will make available any appropriate resources necessary to ensure their safety and that of their families.

In your correspondence, you asked that all civilian and military personnel are notified of their legal rights to make protected disclosures to Congress. The Department takes this matter very seriously. Under the No FEAR Act, all personnel are required to receive discrimination and whistleblower protection training on a regular basis. New employees are required to receive No FEAR Act training within 90 calendar days of their appointment to service. Further, all employees are required to complete refresher training every two years to ensure continued understanding of their rights and responsibilities. On October 22, 2019, the Department issued an internal memorandum entitled, "Whistleblower Protection Prohibited Personnel Practices." The memorandum includes Office of Special Counsel guidance, and employees were directed to acknowledge receipt of the memorandum.

Again, please know we take our responsibility to protect our people very seriously. I appreciate your continued support of the men and women of the Department of Defense and will keep you apprised of any developments as appropriate.

Sincerely,

We should have bounced Columbus Day as a holiday years ago and made election day a federal holiday.
But a certain party wouldn't like that would they? It's counter productive to their ongoing voter suppression.

So many companies have abandoned Columbus Day already to give employees the day after Thanksgiving. But, I do agree Election Day should be a paid holiday IF you vote. That would encourage voter participation, too.

Stop and Frisk was a reckless, dangerous and ill-conceived policy that subjected Black and brown people to constant racial profiling, surveillance and unwanted contact with police. The number of stops by the NYPD spiked from 69,000 stops in 2000 to over 685,000 stops in 2011.

All 4 prosecutors have asked the court to leave the Roger Stone case after the DOJ publicly rebuked their recommended sentence of 7-9 yrs.

As a former federal prosecutor at DOJ, this is not normal.

This action demonstrates complete and utter politicization of the agency's work.

Harriet Tubman, aka the “Moses of Her People" was born OTD 1820. Tubman escaped from slavery and courageously led others to freedom via the Underground Railroad. She supported the fight for women’s suffrage and more.

#HarrietTubman rightfully deserves her place on the $20 bill.

Friendly reminder that the story here isn't "hurr durr Silent Sam" on either side, but that UNC tried to basically work with the SCV to give them $2.5m in breach of their fiduciary duties, and the two parties lied to the court and just about everyone in order to do it.

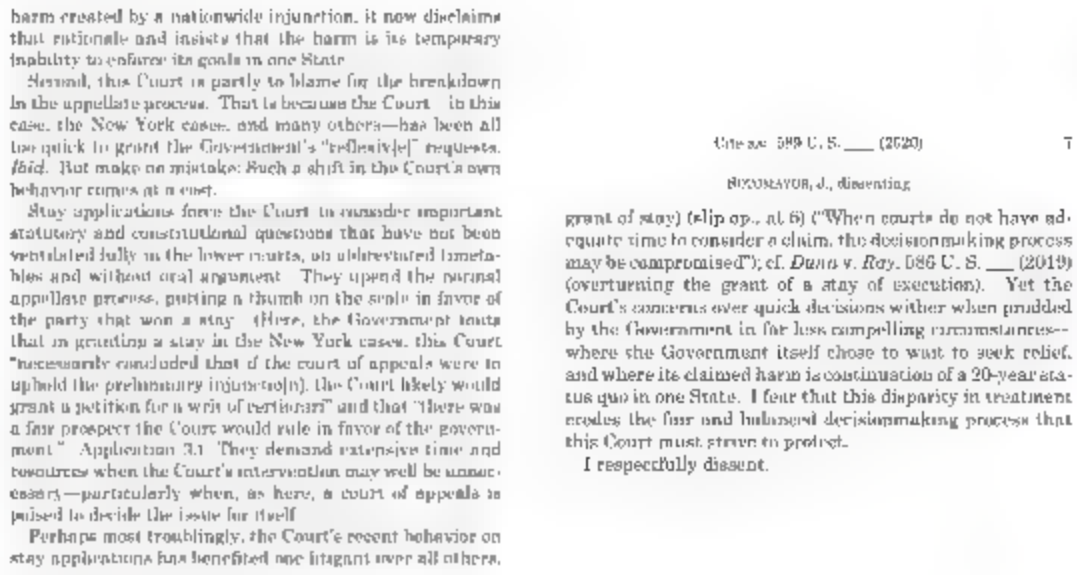
Justice Sotomayor issues important dissent. The Trump administration is increasingly leapfrogging over the appellate court to achieve its desired outcome from a Supreme Court that is inclined to rubberstamp the government's goals.

A growing threat to the integrity of the courts.



harm created by a nationwide injunction. it now disclaims that rationale and insists that the harm is its temporary inability to enforce its goals in one State.

Normally, this Court is partly to blame for the breakdown in the appellate process. That is because the Court—in this case, the New York cases, and many others—has been all too quick to grant the Government's "reflexive[]" requests. Ibid. But make no mistake: Such a shift in the Court's own behavior comes at a cost.

Stay applications force the Court to consider important statutory and constitutional questions that have not been ventilated fully in the lower courts, on abbreviated timetables and without oral argument. They upend the normal appellate process, putting a thumb on the scale in favor of the party that won a stay. (Here, the Government touts that in granting a stay in the New York cases, this Court "necessarily concluded that if the court of appeals were to uphold the preliminary injunction[,] the Court likely would grant a petition for a writ of certiorari" and that "there was a fair prospect the Court would rule in favor of the government." Application 31. They demand extensive time and resources when the Court's intervention may well be unnecessary—particularly when, as here, a court of appeals is poised to decide the issue for itself.

Perhaps most troublingly, the Court's recent behavior on stay applications has benefited one litigant over all others, grant of stay) (slip op., at 6) ("When courts do not have adequate time to consider a claim, the decisionmaking process may be compromised"); cf. Dunn v. Ray, 586 U. S. ____ (2019) (overturning the grant of a stay of execution). Yet the Court's concerns over quick decisions wither when prodded by the Government in far less compelling circumstances—where the Government itself chose to wait to seek relief, and where its claimed harm is continuation of a 20-year status quo in one State. I fear that this disparity in treatment erodes the fair and balanced decisionmaking process that this Court must strive to protect.

Cite as: 589 U. S. ____ (2020) 7

SOTOMAYOR, J., dissenting

I respectfully dissent.

This is important.

In 3 years, Trump has now named 10 judges to the 9th Circuit compared with 7 placed by Obama over 8 years. Many lack judicial experience, are extremists and have sent "shockwaves" through the system.

These judges are there for life.

This is outrageous. Justice Sotomayor issued a reasoned dissent noting a pattern among the justices of allowing the Trump administration to ignore the appellate courts and skip to the SCOTUS to secure their desired outcome.

This federal Antilynching Act, which designates lynching as a federal hate crime, was introduced more than 100 years ago, and has failed to pass over 200 times. It is high time that Congress pass this legislation, and we call on the Senate to do so now.

We just witnessed a truly a historic moment in the House which just passed the Emmett Till Anti-Lynching Act—a bill that would make lynching a federal crime and is identical to our bill with @SenKamalaHarris & @SenatorTimScott that unanimously passed the Senate last year.

After over 100 years and 200 attempts by Congress to pass anti-lynching legislation, we are now one step closer to finally making lynching a federal crime and addressing a dark chapter in our nation's history.

Sen. Cory Booker @SenBooker · 3m
Lynchings are violent acts of terror—killing human beings to sow fear & keep black communities from fully participating as citizens. This vote sends a clear message that lynching won't be tolerated and brings us closer to finally reckoning with our history of racialized violence.

Sen. Cory Booker @SenBooker · 3m
Now the Senate must again pass this bill to ensure it finally becomes law—marking a moment in our country that not only acknowledges this painful history, but solidifies our commitment to confronting bias-motivated acts of terror in all its forms.

The #2020Census is about saying, "I exist." And that is powerful. Powerful enough to decide whether our communities are represented and resourced. Make no mistake, efforts to suppress our participation in the census are efforts to marginalize us.

That John Lewis, while battling pancreatic cancer, found the strength to stand on the bridge today and urge us all to go out and vote like we've never voted before, steps away from where he was attacked 55 years ago is one of the greatest moments of our democracy. #Selma55

Very moving. I lost my father to pancreatic cancer- I know what it does to people. That he found the energy to do this is just extraordinary to me. He is a national hero- the best of us.

🚨MICHIGAN: No votes should be wasted this #2020Election season.

Michigan voters who voted absentee for candidates no longer running have the opportunity to change their vote.

Follow these steps via Michigan's Secretary of State. @MichSOS ⬇️📞Call us at 866-OUR-VOTE for help!

If a voter has already voted absentee and wishes to change their vote (because the candidate has dropped out of the race, or for any other reason), a voter can spoil their ballot by submitting a written request to their city or township clerk.

The voter must sign the request and state if they would like a new absentee ballot mailed to them or if they will vote at the polls.

This request must be received by 2 p.m. the Saturday before the election if received by mail. An absentee ballot may be spoiled in person at the clerk's office until 4 p.m. the Monday prior to the election.

The voter can obtain a new absentee ballot there or vote at the polls. There is no option on Election Day to spoil an absentee ballot that has been received by the clerk.

Adding: wash hands 20sec w/soap, When not available- spritz >60% rubbing alcohol onto hands after touching door handles,etc., cough/ sneeze into shirt. I've added tea tree to alcohol spritz. It's got antimicrobial properties, smells good, the oil makes alcohol not as dehydrating.

A strange debate. Voting is a civic duty.

Are you skipping jury duty because it might reveal something about your views on criminal justice?

Are you not gonna be counted in this year's Census?

I find this stance un-American and contrary to values the press should stand for.

DOJ issued this statement re: #SuperTuesday2020. They will be watching for disinformation campaigns.

There is NO recognition of #VoterSuppression efforts and full silence when it comes to voting rights.

This is tone deaf and does little to instill confidence in the electorate.

Department of Justice

Office of Public Affairs

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — Monday, March 2, 2020

Joint Statement from DOJ, DOS, DOD, DHS, ODNI, FBI, NSA, and CISA on Preparations for Super Tuesday

U.S. Attorney General William P. Barr, Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, Secretary of Defense Mark Esper, Acting Secretary of Homeland Security Chad Wolf, Acting Director of National Intelligence Richard Grenell, Federal Bureau of Investigation Director Christopher Wray, U.S. Cyber Command Commander and National Security Agency Director Gen. Paul Nakasone, and Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency Director Christopher Krebs today released the following joint statement:

"Tomorrow, millions of voters in more than a dozen states and territories will cast their votes in presidential primaries. 'Super Tuesday' will see more Americans head to the polls than any other day of the primary season. We continue to work with all 50 states, U.S. territories, local officials, political parties and private sector partners to keep elections free from foreign interference.

"Americans must also remain aware that foreign actors continue to try to influence public sentiment and shape voter perceptions. They spread false information and propaganda about political processes and candidates on social media in hopes to cause confusion and create doubt in our system. We remain alert and ready to respond to any efforts to disrupt the 2020 elections. We continue to make it clear to foreign actors that any effort to undermine our democratic processes will be met with sharp consequences.

"The level of coordination and communication between the federal government and state, local and private sector partners is stronger than it's ever been. Our Departments and Agencies are working together in an unprecedented level of commitment and effort to protect our elections and to counter malign foreign influence, but voters have a role to play too.

"We encourage all voters going to the polls to check your voter registration and know ahead of time when to vote, where to vote, what's on your ballot, and whether your state requires identification. Your state or local election official's office is the most trusted source for election material. A well-informed and vigilant republic is the best defense against disinformation."

The year 2020 marks the 150th anniversary of the Department of Justice. Learn more about the history of our agency at www.Justice.gov/Celebrating150Years.

I marched w/ @amyklobuchar & @PeteButtigieg yesterday in Selma. That both likely had their minds made up as they crossed the Bridge but still took seriously the importance of being there, with Black voters, speaks volumes about their principles.

California has a record 20.4M people registered to vote, making up appx 81% of all eligible voters - the highest rate in 6 decades.

Too many states are engaged in a race to the bottom w/ rampant #votersuppression. Every state should strive for rates like Cali's. @AlexPadilla4CA

In Selma, I spoke with a foot soldier who had problems voting in 2018. I mentioned him to @KristenClarkeJD & asked if @LawyersComm lawyers could help. She just emailed to say they worked thru the issue & he'd voted. There is help for you too, nationwide.

2. The footage was startling for how long and severely the officers beat King. Though "driving while Black" was already circulating in the culture, it was the King video that shocked the conscience of those who might have doubted the magnitude of racial disparities in policing.

Phillip Atiba Goff @DrPhilGoff · 4m

3. Because the video was so clear, there was outrage that a jury could not convict any of the officers. The resulting uprising by Black and Latinx communities in Los Angeles lasted 6 days with the national guard, US Army, and Marines providing aid to turn the outrage peaceful.

Phillip Atiba Goff @DrPhilGoff · 4m

4. Many in the media called it the worst days of racial unrest in the country's history. Those who did were historically illiterate.

Those who think it won't happen again may be as well.

Heartbreaking. No voter should have to endure long lines like this. Our legal team here at the Election Protection command center is looking into this now but we know this is attributable in part to the use of new voter centers which replace local precincts Call us: 866-OUR-VOTE

Here's the line at Santa Monica Public Library, one of only 4 places you can vote in the City. In 2016, we had 53 polling locations. Seems the only vote I'll be able to cast today is a complaint to 866-our-vote to complain about this disaster of a system

I called and spoke with Amanda who was very nice and took my complaint. Agree with you this is heartbreaking and definitely attributable to the voting centers which took away at least 45+ polling centers from Santa Monica residents.

The SCOTUS hears a challenge today to a restrictive Louisiana law that would leave people with access to a single abortion clinic. This would have a devastating impact on low-income Black women. #MyRightMyDecision

Just got out of arguments in June Medical Services, the Supreme Court's big abortion case. I think there is actually a chance Chief Justice Roberts will apply Whole Women's Health and strike down Louisiana's admitting privileges requirement.

Roberts repeatedly asked how the admitting privileges requirement could benefit Louisiana women HERE if it didn't benefit Texas women in WWH. Asked a variation on that question several times. Louisiana didn't give a good answer. Also Louisiana's solicitor general was awful.

Roberts joining the liberals is no sure thing, but it is definitely within the realm of possibility. He seemed frustrated that the Louisiana solicitor general just kept lying about the law, the facts, and the record. Also, he wasn't interested in third-party standing at all.

4 24 106

Mark Joseph Stern @mjs_DC · 53m

Kavanaugh kept trying to distinguish this case from Whole Woman's Health—I think he will vote to uphold the law—but Roberts just wasn't having it. The liberal justices also did an excellent job refuting Louisiana's efforts to paint abortion providers as lazy, dangerous quacks.

This is coordinated to occur concurrently with the 2020 election. The GOP did the same thing in 2004 with gay marriage to get out the vote. It's craven, vicious pandering to their base.

Since 1973, 167 former death-row prisoners have been exonerated of all charges and set free.

A system that produces this high rate of error when it comes to human life is inhumane, indefensible and immoral.

The Mayor of Kansas City went to vote at the site that he has been going to for the last 11 years and he wasn't on the rolls.

This is Exhibit A when it comes to #VoterSuppression in America today. It's outrageous and should never be tolerated.

Mayor Q @QuintonLucasKC
I made a video this morning about the importance of voting and then got turned away because I wasn't in the system even though I've voted there for 11 years, including for myself four times! Go figure, but that's okay. We'll be back later today! #Vote #KCMO

As #votes are cast in 6 states today, 425,000 Americans won't get a say due a felony conviction:

MI - 44,000
MS - 218,000
MO - 90,000
ND - 2,000
WA - 48,000

Black voters are disproportionately impacted in every case. In #Mississippi, 16% of otherwise-eligible Black citizens can't vote due to a conviction. Imagine how social policy and economic opportunity might be different if they could.

Trump overstates. #TravelBan still can't be enforced against foreign nationals with family members in US, and doesn't apply to students.

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 26, 2017

Statement from President Donald J. Trump

Today's unanimous Supreme Court decision is a clear victory for our national security. It allows the travel suspension for the six terror-prone countries and the refugee suspension to become largely effective.

As President, I cannot allow people into our country who want to do us harm. I want people who can love the United States and all of its citizens, and who will be hardworking and productive.

My number one responsibility as Commander in Chief is to keep the American people safe. Today's ruling allows me to use an important tool for protecting our Nation's homeland. I am also particularly gratified that the Supreme Court's decision was 9-0.

Hawaii court call Pres Trump out on clear religious animus driving unlawful #MuslimBan.

33 of 43 A review of the historical background here makes plain why the Government wishes to focus on the Executive Order's text, rather than its context. The record before this Court is unique. It includes significant and unrebutted evidence of religious animus driving the promulgation of the Executive Order and its related predecessor. For example

> In March 2016, Mr. Trump said, during an interview, "I think Islam hates us." Mr. Trump was asked, "Is there a war between the West and radical Islam, or between the West and Islam itself?" He replied: "It's very hard to separate. Because you don't know who's who."

BREAKING: Trump plans to rescind #travelban and replace with new revised executive order.

In short, the panel's opinion readily meets the normal standards for rehearing en banc. Nevertheless, the United States does not seek en banc review of the merits of the panel's ruling. Rather than continuing this litigation, the President intends in the near future to rescind the Order and replace it with a new, substantially revised Executive Order to eliminate what the panel erroneously thought were constitutional concerns. Cf. Op. 24 (declining to narrow the district court's overbroad injunction because "[t]he political branches are far better equipped to make appropriate distinctions"). In so doing, the President will clear the way for immediately protecting the country rather than pursuing further, potentially time-consuming litigation. Under the unusual circumstances presented here—including the extraordinarily expedited proceedings and limited briefing to the panel, the complexity and constitutional magnitude of the issues, the Court's sua sponte consideration of rehearing en banc, and respect for the President's constitutional responsibilities—the government respectfully submits that the most appropriate course would be for the Court to hold its consideration of the case until the President issues the new Order and then vacate the panel's preliminary decision. To facilitate that disposition, the government will notify the Court of the new Order as soon as it is issued.

Postponing primaries creates the risk for even deeper pockets of voter suppression in already suppressed communities.

There are contingencies to keep people safe that don't involve postponements.

We need the NYPD to cease low-level arrests during the crisis. Even with the best of plans, we would not be able to contain COVID-19 in the jails once it's there.

Arresting people on minor offenses is in no way worth spreading a deadly virus in our precincts, courts & jails.

1. Allow any individual designated by the voter (including staff of nursing homes and senior centers if the voter resides in these facilities) to pick up the voter's absentee ballot and drop the voter's absentee ballot off at the board of elections by the close of polls on election day;
2. Accept absentee ballots postmarked by election day (March 17) and received by the board within 10 days of election day;
3. Send two board members (one from each political party) to deliver absentee ballots to any facilities including any public housing facilities that were previously polling sites but were moved in the last week, and return voted absentee ballots to the board of election by the close of election day;
4. Extend the absentee ballot request deadline to 3 p.m. on Election Day for those individuals (1) susceptible to COVID-19, (2) whose polling places were moved, and (3) who would be putting themselves at higher risk of contracting the disease by traveling to the polls and standing in lines; and
5. Allow any voter or their designee to drop off their absentee ballot at any polling location in the county.

Here are the 4 safeguards for states adopting no-excuse vote by mail:
➡️Postage is pre-paid.
➡️Ballots postmarked by Election Day must count.
➡️Voters are notified and can cure any signature matching issues.
➡️Community groups can collect and return sealed ballots.

I like Oregon's system, in which voters can receive text messages when their ballots are (1) mailed out, (2) received back, and (3) tallied. Heads off accusations about "lost" ballots.
Imagine, America: hand-marked paper ballots, no taking off work or standing in line!

100% right. The Oregon rules, where ballots have to be in by Election Day, are the ones to follow.

Oregon > California. Maybe not in all things, but certainly in election laws.

I'm ASTOUNDED at what is playing out in the #OhioPrimary. The Governor has issued a statement that is cryptic and suggests the election will move forward in a few hours after the state's 11th hour attempt to postpone the election failed.

First misstep of Gov DeWine handling this crisis. He overstepped his authority. Was this an attempt to destabilize election or voter suppression? There's no reason why we can't protect the vote and the health of the people at the same time.

beyond that - yes, GOP votes against access because they tend to win low-turnout elections. Whether this changes the math or not, we'll see. But they tend to scream about this being anti-federalist and a Big Government takeover of a 10th Amendment State Right

   So much misinformation and stereotyping in one sentence. I don't know where to begin. I will focus on one simple thing: this statement makes no one safer and leads to anti-Asian violence. The #CoronavirusOutbreak has spawned a public health crisis and an economic crisis. It has also spawned a democracy crisis, which was revealed Tuesday, as 3 states struggled to hold D primaries and a 4th postponed just hours before voting was to begin.

Re: Notice of Non-Compliance with the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (52 U.S.C. § 20507)

Dear Secretary LaRose:

The League of Women Voters of Ohio, the Ohio A. Philip Randolph Institute, and their counsel the American Civil Liberties Union of Ohio, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, and Dēmos write to inform you that Directive 2020-06, issued on March 16, 2020, violates Section 8 of the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (52 U.S.C. § 20507(a)) ("NVRA") because it fails to extend the voter registration deadline to 30 days prior to the new presidential primary election date in order to allow eligible Ohioans to register to vote. If the date of the primary remains June 2, 2020, as set forth in Directive 2020-06, federal law requires that voters be permitted to register to vote in that election through and including May 3, 2020.

The Directive also violates Article V, Section 1 of the Ohio Constitution, which provides that "[e]very citizen of the United States, of the age of eighteen years, who has been a resident of the state, county, township, or ward, such time as may be provided by law, and has been registered to vote for thirty days, has the qualifications of an elector, and is entitled to vote at all elections…" Ohio Const. Art. V, Sec. I (emphasis added).

We also write to inform you that whatever date becomes the final and lawful date of the Ohio presidential primary election, whether by court order or by legislative action, your office must allow Ohio citizens to register to vote up to 30 days prior to Election Day to remain in compliance with Section 8 of the NVRA and Article V of the Ohio Constitution.

Emmett Till's family's support for families impacted by police violence was viewed as a continuation of lynching that killed Emmett. Lynching wasn't defined by rope, but by terror. Murderers knew they'd get away w/it & no court would convict — just like police terror today.

Reason Emmett Till family support was so important is too many white ppl like to minimize police lynchings today as not comparable to 1950's lynch mobs. But Airickca Gordon Taylor & mother Ollie Gordon were having none of that. Police terror is last frontier of accepted lynching.

In the first weeks of the 2020 election cycle, we have seen first-hand the impact that the #coronavirus is having on our democracy. States need voting reforms and preparedness plans in place NOW. They also need Congressional funding to get it right.

BREAKING: SCOTUS issues ruling in #Comcast case. Court imposes a tougher burden of proof for discrimination victims seeking to invoke protections of Section 1981. Case now goes back to lower CA court for review

Ruling may shut the courthouse door on future discrimination victims

Cite as: 589 U. S. ____ (2020) 13

Opinion of the Court

III

All the traditional tools of statutory interpretation persuade us that §1981 follows the usual rules, not any exception. To prevail, a plaintiff must initially plead and ultimately prove that, but for race, it would not have suffered the loss of a legally protected right. We do not, however, pass on whether ESN's operative amended complaint "contain[s] sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face'" under the but-for causation standard. Iqbal, 556 U. S., at 678–679. The Ninth Circuit has yet to consider that question because it assessed ESN's pleadings under a different and mistaken test. To allow that court the chance to determine the sufficiency of ESN's pleadings under the correct legal rule in the first instance, we vacate the judgment of the court of appeals and remand the case for further proceedings consistent with this opinion.

It is so ordered.

Why is there a federal testing limit? And why is it so low?? Even if we were testing at a rationally high rate -- and we're not -- it wouldn't be possible to process all of those tests with a federal cap in place. And can universities and non-Labcorp & Quest labs process tests?

The 2010 Census undercounted 2.1% of the Black population, resulting in diminished resources for our communities. Undercounts also jeopardize the ability to produce fair maps in redistricting.

Why is DOJ obstructing civil rights in the middle of a pandemic? They should be protecting voting rights or fighting hate crimes.

URGENT: The Trump Administration cannot be allowed to use the #Coronavirus crisis as an excuse to suspend civil rights laws. This is an outrageous act of bad faith and must be reversed immediately!

U.S. Department of Labor

Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs
200 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20210

March 17, 2020

MEMORANDUM TO: ALL CONTRACTING AGENCIES OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

FROM: CRAIG E. LEEN
Director
Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs

SUBJECT: Contracts for Coronavirus Relief Efforts

In view of the special circumstances in the national interest presented by the novel coronavirus outbreak, and consistent with agency practice relating to emergency responses, I have decided to grant a limited exemption and waiver from some of the requirements of the laws administered by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP). OFCCP enforces Executive Order 11246 (EO 11246), as amended, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act (Section 503), as amended, and Section 4212 of the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act (VEVRAA), as amended, which require that Federal contracting agencies include in all covered supply & service and construction contracts an equal opportunity clause. OFCCP regulations authorize me to exempt contracts from requiring the inclusion of any part of the equal opportunity clause in any specific contract when I deem that special circumstances in the national interest so require, when it is impracticable to act upon requests for exemptions individually, and where such waiver will contribute to convenience in the administration of the authorities enforced by OFCCP. 41 CFR 60-1.5(b)(1), 60-300.4(b)(1), and 60-741.4(b)(1).

The exemption and waivers granted herein relate to obligations under EO 11246, Section 503, and VEVRAA. Federal contracting agencies may utilize the following equal opportunity clauses in covered contracts entered into specifically to provide Coronavirus relief. Accordingly, the EEO clauses in FAR sections may be modified as follows:

> As a preamble to the insertion of 52.222-26:
> Notice: The following terms of this clause are waived for this contract: subparagraph (c)(2), (c)(3), (c)(4), (c)(5)(ii), (c)(6), (c)(8), and the phrase "on-site compliance evaluations and" in (c)(9).

"You People" is on that top 10 list of terms that has a very specific, derogatory meaning when officials use it in the context of Black people. It connotes distance. Suggests we are foreign. That we are other. When we hear it, we know EXACTLY what you mean.

The D.C. Human Rights Act is a powerful civil rights law.

It bars discrimination based on someone's appearance. For example, an employer can't refuse to hire you because you wear dreadlocks or braids, or because you wear a head scarf for religious reasons. #ASKDCOAG

Maryland Board of Elections votes to have 1-4 early voting/Election Day voting centers per county for June 2nd #primary.

This is an important development esp. for marginalized communities, including those without formal addresses who would be locked out under 100% vote by mail.

Our failure to gather race data to help understand the spread and impact of #coronavirus will hamper efforts to confront the pandemic.

Every public health department across the country should track and report race data along with other data points already being publicly shared.

In Michigan, where the state's population is 14% Black, African Americans made up 35% of cases and 40% of deaths as of Friday morning.

Both Detroit and #Flint, where a majority of residents are Black, have emerged as hot spots with high death tolls.

An unnecessary and harmful Voter ID bill was brought before the General Assembly.

I voted against it on behalf of Kentuckians who continue to have their voices suppressed and ignored. But it passed.

Today, @GovAndyBeshear vetoed it. He did the right thing.

Not sure if public is aware that physicians are being asked to volunteer in NY right now without protection, hazard pay and benefits. Meanwhile nurses are being offered up to $13K a week. If Cuomo really wants more doctors, he should offer to PAY them.

This Jim Crow lite law had no business being passed in the General Assembly.

Especially in a state with some of the lowest voter turnout and where legislators continue to try and make it easier to get a gun than it is to vote.

The calls for @CDCgov and @HHSGov to collect and release race/ethnicity data around #COVID19 testing and treatment is growing louder. Today, the @LawyersComm and hundreds of medical professionals sent this letter to @SecAzar.

April 6, 2020

The Honorable Alex M. Azar II
Secretary
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
200 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20201
Via Email - Secretary@HHS.gov

Dear Secretary Azar:

The Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law and the undersigned medical professionals write to express grave concern regarding the impact of COVID-19 on communities of color that have historically suffered from both health and economic disparities in this country. This Administration's alarming lack of transparency and data is preventing public health officials from understanding the full impact of this pandemic on Black communities and other communities of color. The Lawyers' Committee is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization formed in 1963 at the request of President John F. Kennedy to enlist the private bar's leadership and resources in combating racial discrimination and vindicating the civil rights of African-Americans and other racial minorities.

We are concerned that Black communities are being disproportionately impacted by the pandemic, and have lower access to COVID-19 testing which may cause delayed care, an increased risk of high mortality rates, and the acceleration of the spread of the disease in our communities. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and its sub-agencies are charged with ensuring that racial disparities do not persist in the administration of healthcare services, even in a pandemic. The undersigned are united in our call to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and its relevant sub-agencies, including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) to immediately release daily racial and ethnic demographic data related to COVID-19 testing, disease burden, and patient outcomes to: (1) better inform a robust public health response in the Black community and (2) ensure COVID-19 tests are not being administered or withheld in a racially discriminatory manner.

And here's the conclusion of Justice Ginsburg's dissent.
documentcloud.org/documents/6826 …

> The majority of this Court declares that this case presents a "narrow, technical question." Ante, at 1. That is wrong. The question here is whether tens of thousands of Wisconsin citizens can vote safely in the midst of a pandemic. Under the District Court's order, they would be able to do so. Even if they receive their absentee ballot in the days immediately following election day, they could return it. With the majority's stay in place, that will not be possible. Either they will have to brave the polls, endangering their own and others' safety. Or they will lose their right to vote, through no fault of their own. That is a matter of utmost importance—to the constitutional rights of Wisconsin's citizens, the integrity of the State's election process, and in this most extraordinary time, the health of the Nation.

There have been a few voting rights issues emerging across the country.

One place that hasn't lifted a finger in 2020--the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division.

No guidance, no cases, nothing. I started off my career here and find the absence of activity appalling.

On January 30, 2020, the Department submitted to Congress the Attorney General's 2019 annual report pursuant to the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act.

On March 21, 2019, the Department submitted to Congress the Attorney General's 2018 annual report pursuant to the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act.

On June 20, 2018, the court entered an agreement in United States v. State of Wisconsin (W.D. Wisc.). The agreement remedies violations of the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) alleged in the Department's complaint, filed simultaneously with the proposed agreement on June 19. The complaint alleges that Wisconsin violated UOCAVA because it did not provide all of the protections of UOCAVA to those voters who are residing overseas temporarily. UOCAVA does not distinguish between voters who reside overseas but intend to return, and those voters who reside overseas for an indefinite period of time. Wisconsin state law, however, differentiated between permanent and temporarily overseas voters in terms of the protections they receive under UOCAVA. The agreement requires Wisconsin to allow temporarily overseas voters to receive their ballots electronically and utilize a Federal write-in absentee ballot vote, if necessary, like other UOCAVA voters. The agreement requires the changes to be implemented in time for the federal primary election on August 14, 2018 and the federal general election on November 6, 2018. The agreement also specifies that Defendants will take the actions necessary to ensure these UOCAVA protections in all future federal elections.

On February 15, 2018, the court entered an agreement in United States v. State of Arizona (D. Ariz.). The agreement remedies violations of the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) alleged in the Department's complaint, filed simultaneously with the proposed agreement on February 14. The complaint alleges that the state violated UOCAVA because it was not able to transmit final absentee ballots to UOCAVA voters at least 45 days in advance of the February 27, 2018, special primary election in Congressional District 8. Among other things, the agreement provided additional time for receipt of UOCAVA ballots to ensure that eligible military and overseas voters will have sufficient time to vote in the special primary election. It also provided additional steps, if needed, to protect voters for the April 24, 2018,

One of the only voting rights issues that DOJ's Civil Rights Division seems to take up concerns military voters

This involves enforcement of a federal law (UOCAVA) which allows vote-by-mail for military voters abroad

Surely this will be supported for voters domestically in 2020

NEW: We sued Governor Abbott in Texas for issuing an executive order that unilaterally allows him to decide who to keep in jail.

His order requires people who can't afford afford bail to stay in overcrowded jails during a #pandemic. We are fighting back.

COVID-19 is hitting the African American community in South Carolina especially hard.

Black people make up 22% of the state population and 38% of #COVID—19 cases.

We need full transparency and comprehensive racial data across the country now.

Department Files Lawsuit Against the City of Chicago To Enfo… A Rights of U.S. Army Reservist

On January 30, 2020, the Department submitted to Congress the Attorney General's 2019 annual report pursuant to the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act.

On March 21, 2019, the Department submitted to Congress the Attorney General's 2018 report pursuant to the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act.

On June 20, 2018, the court entered an agreement in United States v. State of Wisconsin (W. Wisc.). The agreement remedies violations of the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) alleged in the Department's complaint, filed simultaneously with the proposed agreement on June 19. The complaint alleges that Wisconsin violated UOCAVA because it did not provide all of the protections of UOCAVA to those voters who are residing overseas temporarily. UOCAVA does not distinguish between voters who reside overseas but intend to return, and those voters who reside overseas for an indefinite period of time. Wisconsin state law, however, differentiated between permanent and temporarily overseas voters in terms of the protections they receive under UOCAVA. The agreement requires Wisconsin to allow temporarily overseas voters to receive their ballots electronically and still a federal write-in absentee ballot vote, if necessary, like other UOCAVA voters. The agreement requires the changes to be implemented in time for the federal primary election on August 14, 2018 and the federal general election on November 6, 2018. The agreement also specifies the Defendants will take the actions necessary to ensure these UOCAVA protections in all future federal elections.

On February 15, 2018, the court entered an agreement in United States v. State of Arizona (D. Ariz.). The agreement remedies violations of the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) alleged in the Department's complaint, filed simultaneously with the proposed agreement on February 14. The complaint alleges that the state violated UOCAVA because it was not able to transmit mail absentee ballots to UOCAVA voters at least 45 days in advance of the February 27, 2018, special primary election in Congressional District 8. Among other things, the agreement provided additional time for receipt of UOCAVA ballots to ensure that eligible military and overseas voters will have sufficient time to vote in the special primary election. It also provided additional steps, if needed, to prevent voters for the April 24, 2018…

The Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity was always a scam and a dysfunctional group - and all based on a lie. The true voter disenfranchisement comes from gerrymandering and ID laws.

We stand shoulder-to-shoulder with 150+ organizations that care about democracy in calling on Congress to allocate REAL funding to ensure that all voters are able to access the ballot box despite the new challenges we face in the wake of the current pandemic. #2020election

Dear Member of Congress

The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights, our Voting Rights Task Force co-chairs, and the over 150 undersigned organizations write to urge Congress to pass additional measures that would fully fund and direct states and counties to administer the 2020 elections in a safe, fair, and accessible manner. Through the implementation of vote-by-mail and the expansion of early voting and in-person voting options. This is a massive undertaking that requires adequate funding that only the federal government can provide. Congress must provide states with at least $4 billion in preparation for the 2020 November and primary elections, and even a bit the sooner. In the last coronavirus response package, Congress provided only $400 million to states for election assistance. While a step in the right direction, that sum will likely only a fraction of the costs associated with implementing the necessary adjustments to safeguard the electoral process. In its next package, Congress must provide at least an additional $4 billion to help states prepare for 2020 elections amidst the COVID-19 crisis.

In addition, there must be an requirement that states – which are facing exorbitant costs to contain the pandemic and severe damage to their economies – provide a matching fund in order to obtain federal funding for election assistance. And to help ensure that these funds are appropriately disbursed by states, we encourage Congress to institute accountability measures that provide latitude to states while ensuring that the funds are being directly used to ameliorate the impact of the pandemic on voting access. This is particularly important in light of reports that some are redirecting these funds to coronavirus response efforts outside the election context.

Our organizations had previously sought at least $2 billion in federal funding for 2020 election assistance based on an estimate by voting rights experts. But that estimate was judged to be inadequate with preparing for the general election. In light of the number of states that have recently postponed their primary elections in response to the scope and magnitude of the COVID-19 crisis, it is now apparent that states will need additional funding in order to safeguard primary elections as well. The election failure in Wisconsin – where voters were forced to risk their health and safety in order to exercise their fundamental right to vote – underscored the inadequate need to provide additional assistance to states during this dangerous and challenging time. Additional funding is needed to ensure that each state

BREAKING: We just sued Ohio for failing to protect voting rights in the wake of the public health crisis. The 'new' primary election date and cumbersome vote-by-mail process pose unlawful barriers for people across the state.

All voters deserve voice in our democracy. #COVID—19

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF OHIO, OHIO A. PHILIP RANDOLPH INSTITUTE, LABRINDA LEE, MELISSA MOSTAFA, ADRIANNA NEGRON, DORIAN RODRIGUEZ, and HANNAH TUVAL, Plaintiffs,

v.

FRANK LAROSE, in his official capacity as Secretary of State of Ohio,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:20-cv-1811

COMPLAINT

1. Ohio has implemented a new set of rules for its 2020 primary election that will disenfranchise voters on a staggering scale as they contend with the COVID-19 pandemic.

[illegible] ordered the closure of in-person voting for all but a limited set of voters, leaving no avenue for voters who do not receive absentee ballots in time to cast them by mail.

3. Research indicates that these changes may be likely and severe cause the lowest

If Trump cares about ballot harvesting, he should look for these Republican operative-types who were behind the #NC09 scheme in North Carolina. Voter I.D. would not have stopped them.

Americans in financial distress will have to wait longer for financial relief because Trump has ordered the Treasury Dept. to print his name on stimulus checks.

Also - those checks will be delivered by the United States Postal Service which is on the verge of financial collapse.

These proposals should be viewed w/ skepticism and have strong limits.

Under NO circumstances should the Senate be allowed to confirm lifetime judges through remote voting

Disturbing watching Trump pander to CEOs at Bank of America, JP Morgan Chase, Goldman Sachs, Citigroup, Wells Fargo, US Bank Corp, Morgan Stanley and Grand Rapids Bank.

This is political posturing as people are suffering and dying.

> Chris Hayes @chrislhayes
> In my absolutely darkest moments right after the 2016 election I could not imagine this moment: thousands of Americans dying a day, an economic contraction to rival the Great Depression and Trump just listing off the names of CEOs while congratulating himself for a job well done

Texas AG Ken Paxton says fear of #COVID—19 is not a viable reason to vote by absentee ballot.

A court disagrees and interprets the law as allowing these voters to vote absentee.

There are 16,455 known coronavirus cases in Texas. Even in this context, #votersuppression rages on Answering a question Texans have been asking for weeks: Texas AG releases statement saying fear of contracting COVID is not a valid excuse to request an absentee ballot, and reminds it's a crime to lie on the form.

BREAKING: Kentucky alters some of its election rules for the (delayed) June 23 primary. Some details:

1. EVERY voter may vote via absentee ballot. KY law currently requires an excuse to vote absentee. Any voter can now check "medical emergency" as the reason, citing COVID-19.

2. Absentee ballot requests or ballots need not have a notarized signature.

3. There will be early in-person voting for up to two weeks before Election Day (starting June 8) for those who must vote in person. Voters will be able to make an appointment to vote early in person.

Josh Douglas ✓ @JoshuaADouglas · Apr 24

4. There will be limited in-person voting on Election Day. Again, voters can make an appointment. Counties are directed to adopt drive-through voting where they can. Goal is to minimize contact between poll workers and voters as much as possible.

5. Counties can reduce some in-person voting sites and can consider Vote Centers. Hope and goal is that most voters will use mail in process. In-person

In 2020, it's critical that we provide as many avenues as possible for people to VOTE.

In 2018, only 11% of Black voters cast a ballot by mail, less than half the rate of whites & Latinos.

We need vote by mail, expanded early voting & in-person voting.

People in WY are reporting that when checking their online vote confirmation for Bernie, it returned for Biden. I believe the states are rigging the vote for Biden and Coumo mailing out ballots to everyone just provides the illusion that everyone's votes will be counted.

NEW-- Important statement by US Postal Service confirming their commitment to NOT delay the delivery of absentee or vote-by-mail ballots even if there is no stamp or insufficient postage.

Despite this policy, we must ensure that USPS is adequately funded.

> Ballots without postage will still be delivered to local boards of elections, the United States Postal Service said in a statement Wednesday. "As required by federal law, appropriate postage must be affixed to all mailpieces entering into the US postal service mail stream. It is the postal service's policy not to delay the delivery of completed absentee or vote-by-mail ballots even if no postage has been affixed or if the postage is insufficient," Martha Johnson, a USPS spokeswoman said in a statement.
> "In cases where a ballot enters the mailstream without the proper amount of postage, the postal service will collect postage from the appropriate Board of Elections." The postal service did not immediately respond to an inquiry on whether its policy applied to other election materials, such as a request for an absentee ballot. The postal service's policy is not new (it gave a nearly identical statement in 2018), but many voters may not know they can put a ballot in the mail if they can't get a stamp.

People detained inside over-crowded jails and prisons are particularly vulnerable during the pandemic. This has dangerous implications for women, especially Black women who are incarcerated at twice the rate of white women.

BREAKING: SCOTUS finds that the Sixth Amendment's guarantee of a unanimous jury applies to state criminal trials.

Opinion, authored by Justice Gorsuch, provides overview of the racist history underlying Louisiana and Oregon's non-unanimous jury schemes.

2 RAMOS v. LOUISIANA

Opinion of the Court

their origins are clear. Louisiana first endorsed nonunanimous verdicts for serious crimes at a constitutional convention in 1898. According to one committee chairman, the avowed purpose of that convention was to "establish the supremacy of the white race," and the resulting document included many of the trappings of the Jim Crow era: a poll tax, a combined literacy and property ownership test, and a grandfather clause that in practice exempted white residents from the most onerous of these requirements.[1]

Nor was it only the prospect of African-Americans voting that concerned the delegates. Just a week before the convention, the U. S. Senate passed a resolution calling for an investigation into whether Louisiana was systemically excluding African-Americans from juries.[2] Seeking to avoid unwanted national attention, and aware that this Court would strike down any policy of overt discrimination against African-American jurors as a violation of the Fourteenth Amendment,[3] the delegates sought to undermine African-American participation on juries in another way. With a careful eye on racial demographics, the convention delegates sculpted a "facially race-neutral" rule permitting 10-to-2 verdicts in order "to ensure that African-American juror service would be meaningless."[4]

Adopted in the 1930s, Oregon's rule permitting nonunanimous verdicts can be similarly traced to the rise of the Ku Klux Klan and efforts to dilute "the influence of racial, ethnic, and religious minorities on Oregon juries."[5] In fact, no

What a White Supremacist Coup Looks Like--

In 1898, just after Election Day, white supremacists overthrew the govt of Wilmington, NC, forcing city officials to resign. A mob of white people burned down the office of a Black paper and killed Black people.

BREAKING: On Monday, the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law+the Arlington Public Defender will file two motions seeking the release of over 60 incarcerated people in Arlington Co., VA following news that a deputy tested positive for COVID-19. lawyerscommittee.org/wp-content/upl …

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. SARS-CoV-2, colloquially known as the novel coronavirus, and the dangerous disease that it causes, COVID-19, are tearing through the United States. Until April 23, 2020, the Arlington County Detention Facility seemed safe from this pandemic. That safety no longer exists: an Arlington County Deputy Sheriff recently contracted COVID-19.[3] As a result, there now exists the real danger that every law enforcement employee, as well as every incarcerated person housed, at the Arlington County Detention Facility has been exposed—directly or indirectly—to COVID-19.

2. While the virus poses a significant threat to the community at large, it presents an especially imminent and lethal health risk to incarcerated persons. Defendants in this case are part of a subcategory of incarcerated persons at the Arlington County Detention Facility, which, as United States Attorney General William Barr has acknowledged, "are non-violent and pose minimal likelihood of recidivism" and therefore "might be safer serving their sentences in home confinement."[4] As of the date of this filing, the Commonwealth's Attorney is reviewing the records for these defendants and, undersigned counsel anticipate, will communicate whether she supports their release at a hearing on this motion.

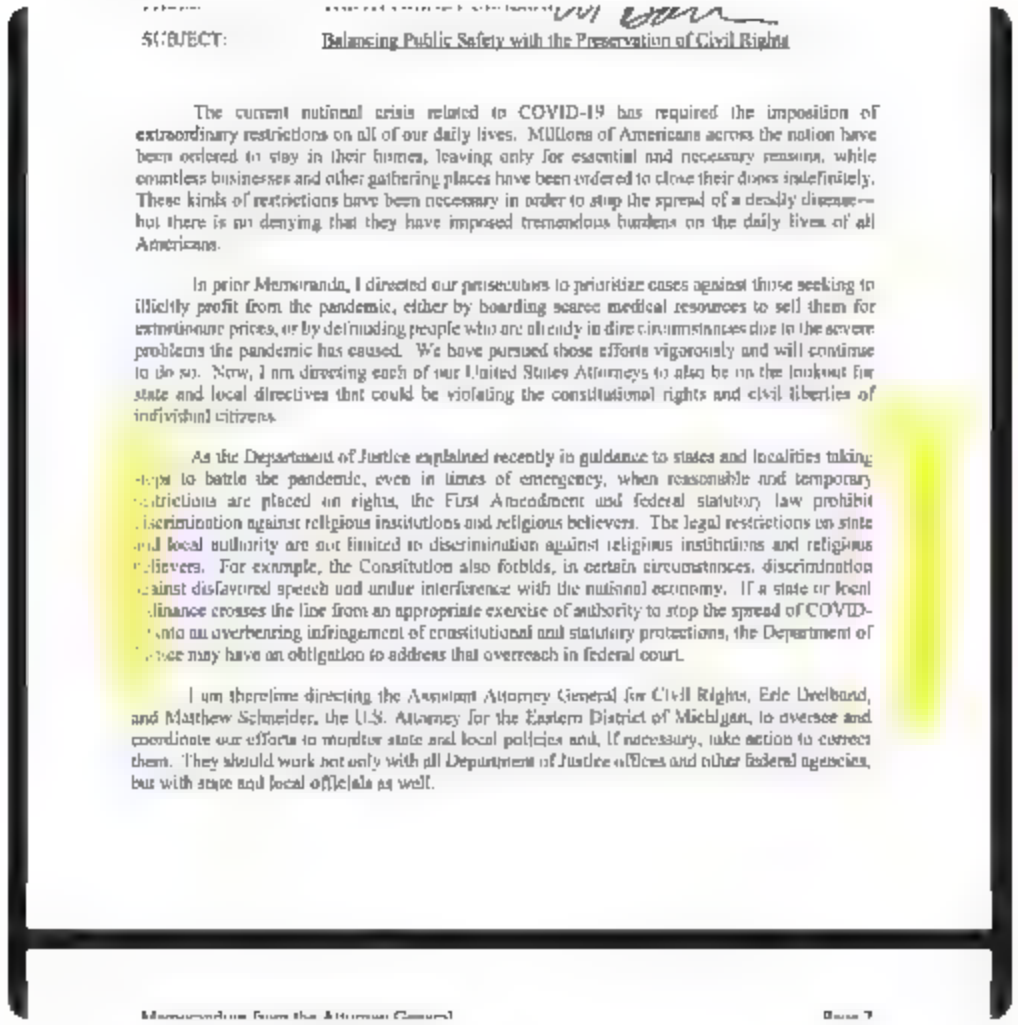
This is the Attorney General one step removed from protesting stay-at-home orders on the capitol steps.

A copy of his directive here —>



SUBJECT: Balancing Public Safety with the Preservation of Civil Rights

The current national crisis related to COVID-19 has required the imposition of extraordinary restrictions on all of our daily lives. Millions of Americans across the nation have been ordered to stay in their homes, leaving only for essential and necessary reasons, while countless businesses and other gathering places have been ordered to close their doors indefinitely. These kinds of restrictions have been necessary in order to stop the spread of a deadly disease—but there is no denying that they have imposed tremendous burdens on the daily lives of all Americans.

In prior Memoranda, I directed our prosecutors to prioritize cases against those seeking to illicitly profit from the pandemic, either by hoarding scarce medical resources to sell them for extortionate prices, or by defrauding people who are already in dire circumstances due to the severe problems the pandemic has caused. We have pursued those efforts vigorously and will continue to do so. Now, I am directing each of our United States Attorneys to also be on the lookout for state and local directives that could be violating the constitutional rights and civil liberties of individual citizens.

As the Department of Justice explained recently in guidance to states and localities taking steps to battle the pandemic, even in times of emergency, when reasonable and temporary restrictions are placed on rights, the First Amendment and federal statutory law prohibit discrimination against religious institutions and religious believers. The legal restrictions on state and local authority are not limited to discrimination against religious institutions and religious believers. For example, the Constitution also forbids, in certain circumstances, discrimination against disfavored speech and undue interference with the national economy. If a state or local ordinance crosses the line from an appropriate exercise of authority to stop the spread of COVID-19 into an overbearing infringement of constitutional and statutory protections, the Department of Justice may have an obligation to address that overreach in federal court.

I am therefore directing the Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights, Eric Dreiband, and Matthew Schneider, the U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Michigan, to oversee and coordinate our efforts to monitor state and local policies and, if necessary, take action to correct them. They should work not only with all Department of Justice offices and other federal agencies, but with state and local officials as well.

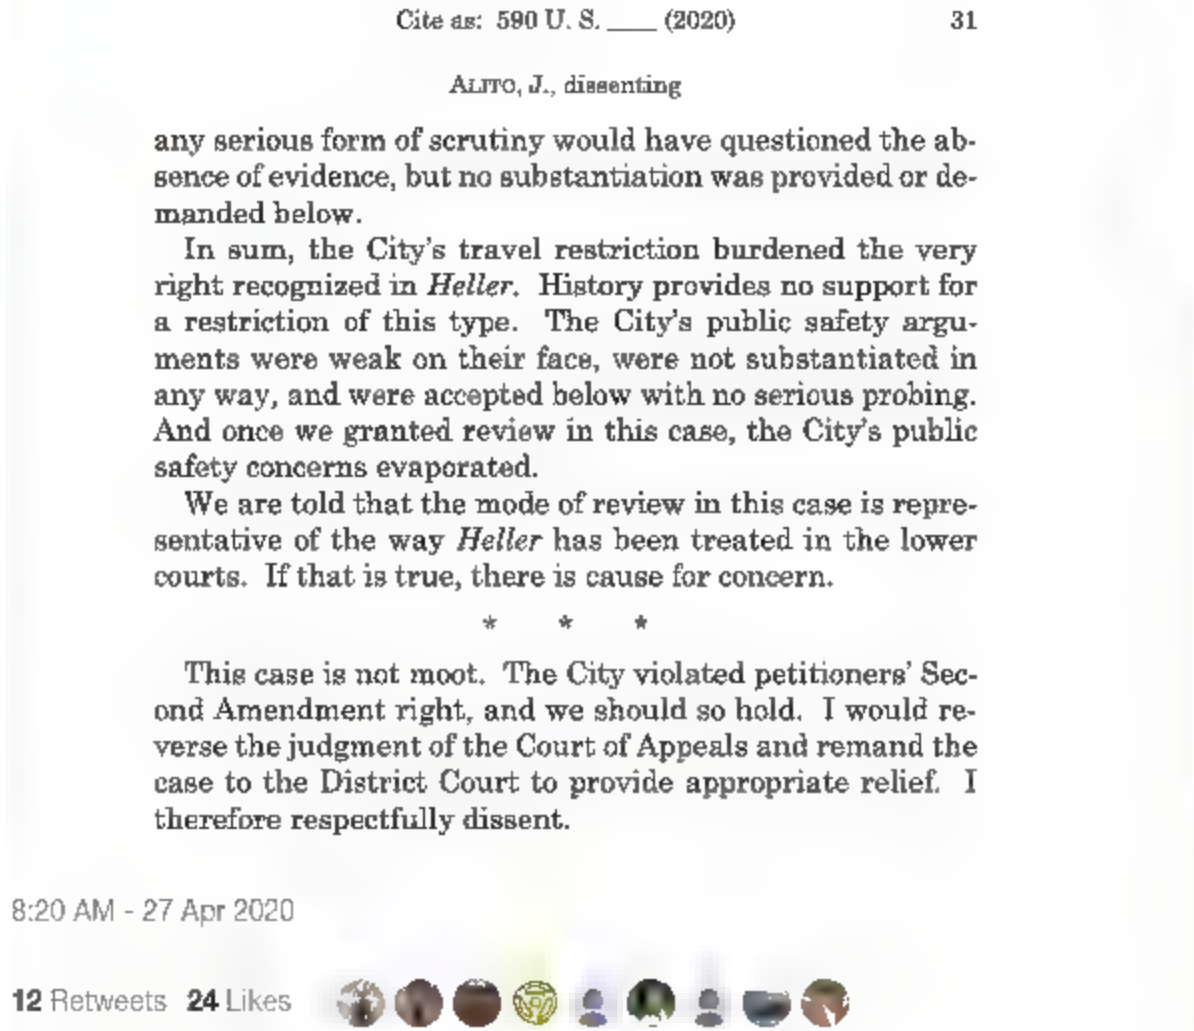
The SCOTUS issued a quick dismissal of a 2nd Amendment case because NYC amended its firearm licensing statute, giving petitioners the relief they sought. But you can feel Alito's seething frustration with missing an opportunity to expand gun rights on all 31 pages of his dissent.



Cite as: 590 U. S. ____ (2020) 31

ALITO, J., dissenting

any serious form of scrutiny would have questioned the absence of evidence, but no substantiation was provided or demanded below.

In sum, the City's travel restriction burdened the very right recognized in Heller. History provides no support for a restriction of this type. The City's public safety arguments were weak on their face, were not substantiated in any way, and were accepted below with no serious probing. And once we granted review in this case, the City's public safety concerns evaporated.

We are told that the mode of review in this case is representative of the way Heller has been treated in the lower courts. If that is true, there is cause for concern.

This case is not moot. The City violated petitioners' Second Amendment right, and we should so hold. I would reverse the judgment of the Court of Appeals and remand the case to the District Court to provide appropriate relief. I therefore respectfully dissent.

Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton (R) tells local election officials that fear of contracting Covid-19 is not an acceptable excuse for requesting a mail-in ballot. Fear or getting Covid, he says, is an emotional condition, not a physical one.
texasattorneygeneral.gov/sites/default/

common understanding of the term "sickness" is "the state of being ill" or "having a particular type of illness or disease." NEW OXFORD AM. DICTIONARY 1623 (3d ed. 2010).[2] A person ill with COVID-19 would certainly qualify as having a sickness. However, a reasonable fear of contracting the virus is a normal emotional reaction to the current pandemic and does not, by itself, amount to a "sickness," much less the type of sickness that qualifies a voter to receive a ballot by mail under Election Code section 82.002.

In addition to "sickness," the Election Code allows voters to vote by mail if they have a "physical condition" that prevents them from appearing at the polling place without assistance or without injury to their health. TEX. ELEC. CODE § 82.002(a). "Physical" is defined as "of or relating to the body as opposed to the mind." NEW OXFORD AM. DICTIONARY 1341 (3d ed. 2010). "Condition" is defined as "an illness or other medical problem." Id. at 362. Combining the two words, a physical condition is an illness or medical problem relating to the body as opposed to the mind. To the extent that a fear of contracting COVID-19, without more, could be described as a condition, it would at most amount to an emotional condition and not a physical condition as required by the Election Code to vote by mail. Thus, under the specifications established by the Legislature in section 82.002 of the Election Code, an individual's fear of contracting COVID-19 is not, by itself, sufficient to meet the definition of disability for purposes of eligibility to receive a ballot by mail.

Why hasn't this Justice Department brought a single case to protect the rights of African American voters or voters of color?

Why has DOJ diverted resources to solely protecting the rights of military voters?

Why are you enabling #VoterSuppression? #AskAGBarr

RECENT ACTIVITIES OF THE VOTING SECTION

On January 30, 2020, the Department submitted to Congress the Attorney General's 2019 annual report pursuant to the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act.

On March 21, 2019, the Department submitted to Congress the Attorney General's 2018 annual report pursuant to the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act.

On June 20, 2018, the court entered an agreement in United States v. State of Wisconsin (W.D. Wisc.). The agreement remedies violations of the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) alleged in the Department's complaint, filed simultaneously with the proposed agreement on June 19. The complaint alleges that Wisconsin violated UOCAVA because it did not provide all of the protections of UOCAVA to those voters who are residing overseas temporarily. UOCAVA does not distinguish between voters who reside overseas but intend to return, and those voters who reside overseas for an indefinite period of time. Wisconsin state law, however, differentiated between permanent and temporarily overseas voters in terms of the protections they receive under UOCAVA. The agreement requires Wisconsin to allow temporarily overseas voters to receive their ballots electronically and utilize a Federal write-in absentee ballot vote, if necessary, like other UOCAVA voters. The agreement requires the changes to be implemented in time for the federal primary election on August 14, 2018 and the federal general election on November 6, 2018. The agreement also specifies that Defendants will take the actions necessary to ensure these UOCAVA protections in all future federal elections.

On February 15, 2018, the court entered an agreement in United States v. State of Arizona (D. Ariz.). The agreement remedies violations of the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) alleged in the Department's complaint, filed simultaneously with the proposed agreement on February 14. The complaint alleges that the state violated UOCAVA because it was not able to transmit final absentee ballots to UOCAVA voters at least 45 days in

What this headline doesn't state is that Georgia will not be convening grand juries until June 12.

So tattoo parlors, bowling alleys & barbershops are open under Kemp's rules. But the suspected murderers of a Black man are free until further notice.

Tennessee imposes strict limits on who can cast an absentee ballot. TN also imposes criminal penalties on people for merely distributing absentee voter applications to help people participate. These restrictions are indefensible, esp during the pandemic.

Massive government spending programs that are not intentionally designed to correct for racial inequities, both in the design and distribution of the benefits, are not capable of ending racial inequity. Such programs usually exacerbate racial inequities rather than reduce them.

States MUST provide access to absentee ballots this election season. Voters deserve access to as many avenues as possible amid the #pandemic.

We will continue to use litigation to ensure access for voters this fraught election season.

Sadly—but not surprisingly—the disproportionate impact of coronavirus on communities of color reflects long-standing inequities in our health care and economic systems.

RE: Ahmaud Arbery, Brunswick, GA

Our office is in possession of a cell phone video that captures the February 23, 2020 murder of Ahmaud Arbery. The video was posted anonymously to the Internet, but we have reason to believe the recording is the same footage referred to by District Attorney George Barnhill which has been in possession of law enforcement since the day of the murder. Mr. Arbery's family has made multiple requests for access to this video which have been denied. As a result of local law enforcement's failure to share the video with the victim's family they will see his horrific murder for the first time on the Internet.

The video clearly shows Mr. Arbery jogging down the road in the middle of the day. Two armed assailants, known to be Gregory and Travis McMicheal, are parked ahead of Mr. Arbery. As he approaches, the armed men, who were unknown to Mr. Arbery, attempted to block his path with their truck. Travis McMichael is seen outside of his vehicle with a shotgun pointed at Mr. Arbery, again blocking his path. Mr. Arbery makes multiple attempts to avoid the armed strangers before first shot is heard. Mr. Arbery then appears to collide with the attacking gunman, now known to be Travis McMichael. Mr. Arbery then struggles for the gun and in defense of his life. At this point Travis McMichael shoots Mr. Arbery two additional times with a shotgun at point blank range. Mr. Arbery collapses to the ground while still trying to escape his attackers.

Mr. Arbery had not committed any crime and there was no reason for these men to believe they had the right to stop him with weapons or to use deadly force in furtherance of their unlawful attempted stop. This is murder.

The series of events captured in this video confirm what all the evidence indicated prior to its release— Mr. Arbery was pursued by three white men that targeted him solely because of his race and murdered him without justification.

There is no reasonable argument justifying the murder of Mr. Arbery. Brunswick Police Department's failure to arrest these men after seeing this evidence violated their duty to the people of Brunswick, Georgia. While this video was withheld, a false narrative was constructed where the victim was slandered as a criminal with mental health concerns. The Glynn County Police Department has both the authority and legal imperative to make an arrest today pending the presentation of this case to a grand jury. The newly assigned DA, Tom Durden, has concluded this case must be brought before a grand jury for criminal indictment. Due to Georgia Supreme Court decision to suspend Grand Juries temporarily due to the pandemic— these men must be taken into custody pending their indictment.

Everything I try to type out feels inadequate. I WOULD NOT BE without her. She never got the recognition she deserved when she was living, sometimes even from her own people. Black women who dared challenge the white narrative were mercilessly castigated.

Ida Bae Wells @nhannahjones · May 5
90 years after her death, I know the same instinct to downplay lynching, to attack her credibility because it was easier than owning up the truth, is at play here. But I have long been a student of hers and Ida taught me well.
In other words, she fortified me for this.

Things that get black people killed in America:

—Jogging in the middle of the day

—Forgetting to use blinkers

—Hanging out in their grandmother's backyard

—Playing with a toy gun

—Buying skittles

Bigger perhaps, for black workers. Records show, from 2008, the recovery of blacks from this Downturn will be longer than any other worker group. In the Great Recession the official national unemployment rate peaked @ 10.1% & the black rate peaked 1 year & 9 months later @ 16.7%.

There are many more questions than answers re #AhmaudArbery. The video, which looks like a lynching, was, strangely enough, released by a local attorney in an attempt to defuse the situation. (Police and prosecutors had the video from the outset.)

In the police report McMichael says he has surveillance video Arbery committing a burglary. Yet DA Barnhill makes no mention of any video in his letter defending the McMichaels, nor has anyone else publicly.

jelani cobb @jelani9 · May 8

The account McMichael gave police in the report is widely at odds with what the video from the chase reveals. Travis McMichael didn't get out of the car during an exchange with Arbery, he was outside the car, armed with the shotgun, waiting for Arbery to pass by.

jelani cobb @jelani9 · May 8

Beyond this, the alleged rationale for pursuing Arbery was suspicion of his involvement in a rash of neighborhood break-ins. But as local outlets have reported there were no home burglaries reported in the community in 2020.

Two-thirds of Americans support #VoteByMail as a safe alternative to vote during the #coronavirus pandemic.

We are fighting to make sure every voter has access to absentee ballots, expanded early voting and in person voting options in the #2020election.

This is Breonna Taylor.

She was a beloved Louisville EMT and a nurse who was fatally shot by police in her own home. She was hit 8X after cops entered w/o announcing themselves. A frontline worker, she was just 26 yrs old. Her family deserves justice.

Proud to support @SenKamalaHarris @RepMarciaFudge & @WhipClyburn's #VoteSafe Act which outlines critical steps for ensuring voter access during the #pandemic.

It's not difficult--> we need no-excuse vote by mail, expansive early voting and in person voting options in 2020.

The VoteSafe Act would:

- Require states to provide no-excuse mail-in absentee voting for the 2020 elections and guarantee minimum due process protections for these voters;
- Require states to maintain an early in-person voting period of at least 20 days for the 2020 elections;
- Authorize $2.5 billion for states to meet their obligations to offer no-excuse absentee voting and early in-person voting; and
- Provide $2.5 billion in additional discretionary grant funding for states to further improve the safety and accessibility of voting options during the pandemic, including:
  - Ensuring that elections are accessible to individuals with disabilities
  - Ensuring adequate protections for language minority voters
  - Ensuring voting access for American Indian, Alaska Native, and rural voters
  - Implementing and protecting curbside voting;
  - Implementing and meeting a maximum wait time standard or publishing current wait times for voters
  - Providing for the training and recruitment of poll workers;
  - Improving access to voter registration.

Louis DeJoy, a partisan fundraiser was just appointed as the new postmaster general. His appointment screams politicization of the USPS.

The public is counting on a fair and well run postal service to deliver medication, stimulus support, ballots & more.

FALSE.

Just compare mortality statistics for this year with stats from same period in past years. In parts of the U.S. and Europe that have been hit hard, fatalities from all causes are up by more than 25%, and in some places almost 80%.

Here's data on the UK—

Total mortality rates, including from Covid-19

Some countries report weekly deaths, which offers a glimpse at the true toll from Covid-19, although numbers change as more deaths are reported over time.

Yes, but we aren't going to have 300 million doses available all at once. And that being the case, what's important is to expect that the venality, vindictiveness, corruption and stupidity of the Trump regime will infect the initial rationing plan without aggressive oversight.

While we mark 66 yrs since #BrownvBoard, impt. to remember that students in the South are attending public schools that are more segregated today than they were in the 70s.

And the problems are not confined to the South. NYC has one of the MOST segregated school systems today.

Important that the public see ALL of critical facts surrounding the death of #AhmaudArbery.

The unfinished home he allegedly visited on his run was fully open and frequented by everyone -- white residents, children.

Ahmaud should be alive today.
#JusticeForAhmaudArbery

S. Lee Merritt, Esq. @MeritLaw
More alleged "trespassers" entering the construction site where Ahmaud Arbery was last seen before his murder. These children were not implicated in any crimes due to their presence at this location.

Hello voting rights advocates: Anybody home?
Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, and Florida are among states with many out-of-state students who are registered to vote but may be told last minute that they won't be there in November. Better get those absentee ballots NOW!

Student voting rights groups need to organize their campuses on-line now. They need to confirm that all students have absentee ballots from states where they are registered and otherwise qualified to vote. No voter left behind.

Opponents are launching a #votersuppression campaign in the middle of a pandemic, incl. the deployment of operatives to polling sites.

These tactics are right out of the Jim Crow playbook.

An entire army of civil rights lawyers will fight back.

The pandemic is a reminder that we are a nation divided along lines of race and class.

NYC neighborhoods with high concentrations of Black & Latino people, and low-income residents, suffered the highest #COVID death rates in NYC, while wealthier/white areas saw almost no deaths.

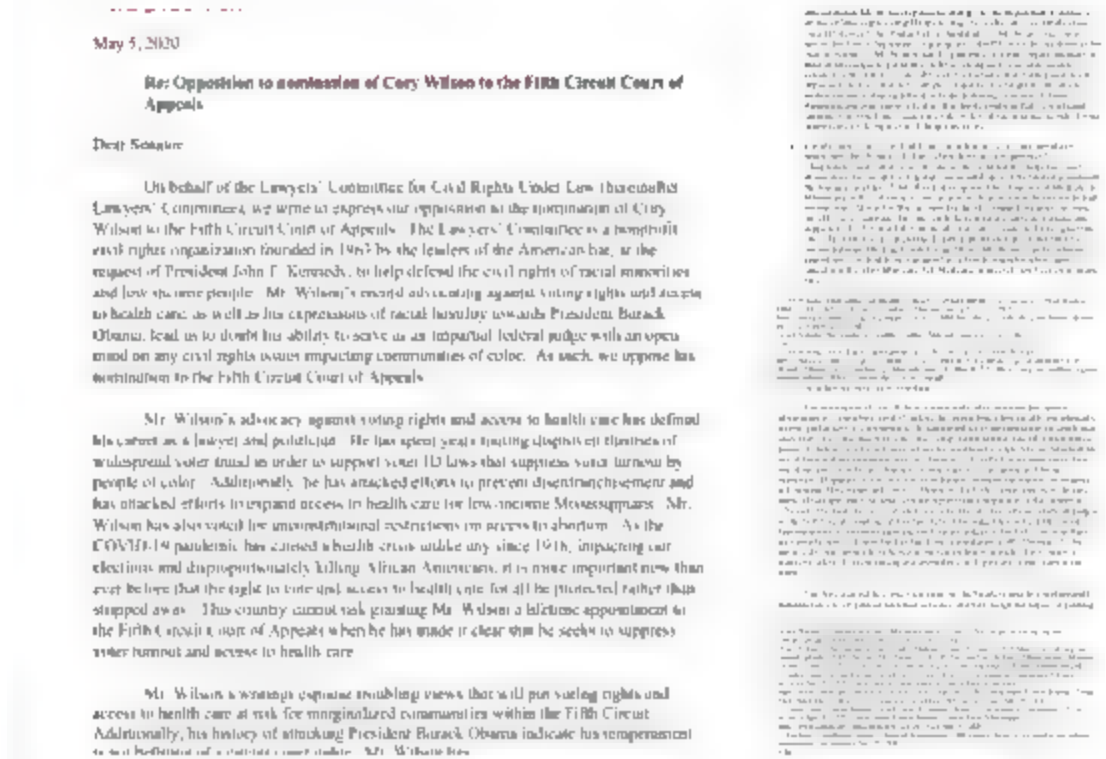
There is a #pandemic. That's not stopping McConnell from pushing judicial nominees forward.

Next up is #CoryWilson, nominated to the 5th Circuit. Wilson's record makes clear that he's an extremist and outside the legal mainstream.

We OPPOSE his nomination.
@LawyersComm



May 5, 2020

Re: Opposition to nomination of Cory Wilson to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals

Dear Senator

On behalf of the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law (the Lawyers' Committee), we write to express our opposition to the nomination of Cory Wilson to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. The Lawyers' Committee is a nonprofit civil rights organization founded in 1963 by the leaders of the American bar, at the request of President John F. Kennedy, to help defend the civil rights of racial minorities and low-income people. Mr. Wilson's record advocating against voting rights and access to health care, as well as his expressions of racial hostility towards President Barack Obama, lead us to doubt his ability to serve as an impartial federal judge with an open mind on any civil rights issues impacting communities of color. As such, we oppose his nomination to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Mr. Wilson's advocacy against voting rights and access to health care has defined his career as a [lawyer] and politician. He has spent years limiting eligible citizens of widespread voter fraud in order to support voter ID laws that suppress voter turnout by people of color. Additionally, he has attacked efforts to prevent disenfranchisement and has attacked efforts to expand access to health care for low-income Mississippians. Mr. Wilson has also voiced his unconstitutional restrictions on access to abortion. As the COVID-19 pandemic has caused a health crisis unlike any since 1918, impacting our elections and disproportionately killing African Americans, it is more important now than ever before that the right to vote and access to health care for all be [protected] rather than stripped away. This country cannot risk granting Mr. Wilson a lifetime appointment to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals when he has made it clear that he seeks to suppress voter turnout and access to health care.

Mr. Wilson's writings espouse troubling views that will put voting rights and access to health care at risk for marginalized communities within the Fifth Circuit. Additionally, his history of attacking President Barack Obama indicate his temperament

In Washington, D.C., the nation's capital, 77% of people killed by #coronavirus have been Black, though Black residents only make up about 46% of the city's population.

These racial disparities persist across the nation...

- In Kansas, Black residents are 7 times more likely to die than White residents.
- In Missouri, Wisconsin and Washington D.C., the rate among Blacks is 6 times higher than Whites, while in Michigan, it is 5 times greater.
- In Arkansas, Illinois, Louisiana, New York, Oregon and South Carolina, Blacks are 3 times more likely to die of the virus than Whites.
- In many states, the virus is also killing Black residents several multiples more often than Asian and Latino residents.

Absentee ballots are a standard part of our elections. Many Americans, including Trump himself, has voted by absentee ballot in the past.

Threatening to hold up funding during a pandemic for political gamesmanship is indefensible, immoral and wrong.

The arrest of William Bryan for his role in the murder of #AhmaudArbery is long overdue.

I'm still waiting for the second prosecutor to be held accountable for his complicity. He even used mental health in his FABRICATED report while seeking to cover up the crimes of these men.

Fifth.
The video made by William Bryan clearly shows the shooting in real time. From said video it appears Ahmaud Arbery was running along the right side of the McMichael truck then abruptly turns 90 degrees to the left and attacks Travis McMichael who was standing at the front left corner of the truck. A brief skirmish ensues in which it appear Arbery strikes McMichael and appears to grab the shotgun and pull it from McMichael. The 1st shot is through Arbery's right hand palm which is consistent with him grabbing and pulling the shotgun at the barrel tip. the 2nd and 3rd wounds are consistent with the struggle for the shotgun as depicted in the video. the angle of the 2nd shot with the rear of the buttstock being pushed away and down from the fight are also consistent with the upward angle of blood plume shown in the video and that McMichael was attempting to push the gun away from Arbery while Arbery was pulling it toward himself. The 3rd shot too appears to be in a struggle over the gun. The angle of the shots and the video show this was from the beginning or almost immediately became-- a fight over the shotgun. Given the fact Arbery initiated the fight. at the point Arbery grabbed the shotgun, under Georgia Law, McMichael was allowed to use deadly force to protect himself.
Just as importantly, while we know McMichael had his finger on the trigger, we do not know who caused the firings. Arbery would only had to pull the shotgun approximately 1/16th to 1/8th of one inch to fire the weapon himself and in the height of an altercation this is entirely possible. Arbery's mental health records & prior convictions help explain his apparent aggressive nature and his possible thought pattern to attack an armed man.

i voted yes on this amendment. However, I agree with @RonDeSantisFL - they can vote when they complete their compensation the victims of their crime and complete their debt to society (e.g., "fines"). who they vote for is irrelevant.

This is a big deal. Justices Thomas, Roberts, Kavanaugh, Gorsuch and Alito just overturned precedent that had been in place for 40 years.

This case makes clear that other precedents set by the Court (ie. Roe, affirmative action, etc) are fair game in the eyes of these justices.

The Supreme Court is on a perilous path.

We have 5 Justices who will abandon precedent and not be faithful to the principle of stare decisis.

Justice Breyer issued a dissent that makes clear the jeopardy that we are now in. He asks "which cases the Court will overrule next"?

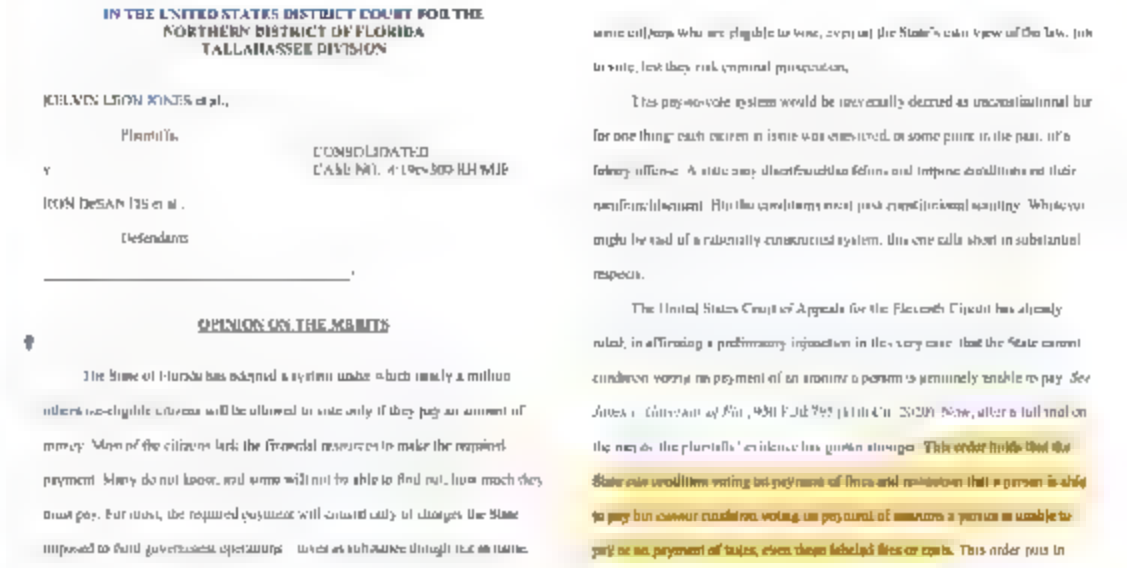
HUGE: Court just declared #Florida's conditioning voting rights restoration on payment of fines & fees #unconstitutional. It's wealth discrimination and violates due process, plus a kind of poll tax under 24th Am. Will impact hundreds of thousands. #Amendment4



IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
TALLAHASSEE DIVISION

KELVIN LEON JONES et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v

RON DeSANTIS et al.,

Defendants

CONSOLIDATED
CASE NO. 4:19cv300-RH/MJF

OPINION ON THE MERITS

The State of Florida has adopted a system under which nearly a million otherwise-eligible citizens will be allowed to vote only if they pay an amount of money. Many of the citizens lack the financial resources to make the required payment. Many do not know, and some will not be able to find out, how much they must pay. But most, the required payment will benefit only the citizens imposed to fund government operations—taxes, as that term is usually understood.

same citizens who are eligible to vote, except the State's own view of the law, not to vote, lest they risk criminal prosecution.

This pay-to-vote system would be universally decried as unconstitutional but for one thing: each citizen in issue was convicted, at some point in the past, of a felony offense. A state may disenfranchise felons and impose conditions on their reenfranchisement. But the conditions must pass constitutional scrutiny. Whatever might be said of a rationally constructed system, this one falls short in substantial respects.

The United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit has already ruled, in affirming a preliminary injunction in the very case that the State cannot condition voting on payment of an amount a person is genuinely unable to pay. See Jones v. Governor of Fla., 950 F.3d 795 (11th Cir. 2020). Now, after a full trial on the merits, the plaintiffs' evidence has gotten stronger. This order holds that the State can condition voting on payment of fines and restitution that a person is able to pay but cannot condition voting on payment of amounts a person is unable to pay or on payment of taxes, even those labeled fines or costs. This order puts in George Floyd pleaded for his life and told the officer that he could not breathe.

This is a painful video of that cop using a crushing level of deadly force by kneeling on the neck of a handcuffed man. #BlackLivesMatter #JusticeForFloyd #ICantBreathe

George Floyd is his name. #georgefloyd #blacklivesmatter

> My god. Another black man, not resisting, pleading that he can't breathe, while an officer has his knee lodged firming in his neck, closes his eyes and dies. Murdered. I'd say his name but that hasn't been released. I can't watch that video. When does it end? #BlackLivesMatter

It's been three months since family and friends began saying goodbye to the #AhmaudArbery they knew and loved. Here's my @AP profile of "Maud," for which I spent time in Brunswick, Georgia last weekend. (Photo courtesy: Fuzzy Rabbit Fotos) apnews.com/e8bd9d517200f1 …

#AmyCooper racist lies put an innocent Black man in harm's way. My piece in @NYDailyNews explains why @ManhattanDA must hold her accountable.

Imagine how much racism and racial violence plays out every day that doesn't get recorded by the victim, the courageous bystander, the sloppy co-conspirator, the mandated police body cam.

Glad to see @Twitter take action to label & fact check Trump's FALSE tweets about mail-in ballots.

Americans deserve accurate information about how to participate in elections, esp. during a pandemic. We must all continue to sound the alarm about election disinformation.⬇️⬇️
